

3a) When we down sampled the audio signal with down sampling rate $(dsr) > 2$ we get the music sound's slightly different. When we down sample, the sampling frequency gets halved and there is an effect on the clarity of signal. If we increase the dsr value from 2 to 32, we cannot understand the audio signal. The clarity of the signal will get nullified as dsr increases.